OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C. April 26, 1881

A. London Snowden, Esq.,

Supt. U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:-

Referring to your letter of the 23rd instanc in which it is stated that the minor coins in the Exchange Fund are generally in condition for reissue, I have to say that I see no objection to your paying such as are fit for re-issue in exchange for other minor coins and this you are authorized to do. In view of the large amount of five cent nickel coin in the Treasury, I regard this course preferable to coining an additional amount of such coin.

Very respectfully,

Horatio Bushnell

Director.
